MARWELL 2600 SERIES

2600 A BASE ADAPTER

This versatile conversion adapter was first introduced in early 1993.

The 2600 Series provides an easy and convenient method of converting an old OB style meter installation to a standard socket meter. This unit is capable of accepting up to number one copper or aluminum service conductor. The 2600 series is rated for 100 amps and is provided with surge ground straps and a standard Marwell hanger bracket.
